WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.

SENATE.

The Senate, to-day, confirmed the nominations of Alexander Wilmot, Marshal of the Eastern District of Virginia; Thomas Ewing, Jr., Judge of the Fourth Judicial Circuit, and sixteen of the treaty of Washington, to the Commission on the Northeastern Boundary Question.

THE VIRGINIA BILL.

A report made by Captain Maynard, of the Engineer Corps, on the improvement of the Ohio River at Louisville, as the locks impede its flow.

Brevet Major General Charles H. Smith, colonel of the Twenty-seventh Infantry, and Brevet Major General Joseph A. Mower, Lieutenant Colonel of the Seventeenth Infantry, have been appointed Brigadier Generals, vice Hancock and Terry, promoted. Brevet Major General J. J. Reynolds, Colonel of the Eighteenth Infantry, now commanding the District of Texas, has been appointed Major General, vice Sheridan, promoted.

THE INTERNAL CONSTITUTIONS.

The Secretary of War to-day communicated to the Senate a list of the names of persons who have been appointed officers of the regular army since the organization of the present administration, the date of appointment, the rank, the State from which appointed, and the names of the persons displaced. The list is very long, and fills about three columns of the Globe. There is a good deal of talk to-night about striking out the appointments of regular officers made during the present session. The opponents of the measure, who strongly oppose this bill, say that the appointments are made by General Paine, and the indications to-night are that he and they will to-morrow try to have the bill recommitted, with instructions to strike out the appointments of regular officers.

Yesterday's Proceedings in the Constitutional Convention.

Debate on the Railroad Question.

The Veto and Pardoning Power.

Resolution Relative to the Lake Front and Dearborn Park.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

SPRINGFIELD, Jan. 10.

The transactions to-day in the Convention were of a very unimportant character. They were confined to a few short resolutions, and a debate, which, though interesting, was not of a character especially calculated to call out a large attendance.

The following bills were introduced and referred:

By Mr. SUMNER—To confer equal rights in the public schools of Washington and Georgetown.

By Mr. MCCRARY—To amend the laws of the Territory of Utah.

By Mr. DRAKE—To prohibit the sale of public lands to railroad companies for a term of years.

By Mr. DRAKE—Joint resolution for relief of certain officers of the Revenue Marine Service.

By Mr. SHERMAN—Joint resolution for relief of the Commissioners of Claims, and to provide for the payment of war and claims thereafter.

By Mr. SHERMAN—Joint resolution to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to pay to Government depositaries their excess rates on the gold bonds of the United States sold to actual settlers.

By Mr. DRAKE—Joint resolution for relief of certain officers of the Revenue Marine Service.

By Mr. SHERMAN—Joint resolution for relief of the Commissioners of Claims, and to provide for the payment of war and claims thereafter.

By Mr. SHERMAN—Joint resolution to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to pay to depositaries their excess rates on the gold bonds of the United States sold to actual settlers.

A large number of petitions were introduced, embodying a bill by Mr. CORBETT in favor of increasing the pensions of soldiers who have lost limbs in the service.

FORTY-FIRST CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.

SENATE.

CONSTRUCTIONS.

The Vice President presented papers communicated from the Secretary of War and the Postmaster General, in relation to the claims of Texas to the use of lands for military and naval purposes in Arkansas, and to the payment of the expenses of the Texas militia, which were referred to the Committee on Claims.

Mr. SUMNER, from the Committee on Foreign Relations, reported back the joint resolution of the House for the relief of Mrs. Lincoln, and asked for its present consideration.

Mr. HOWARD said he had been unwilling to interpose any objection to the consideration of the resolution, but he thought it proper to say that he was not satisfied with the amount appropriated. He thought it should be larger.

Mr. SUMNER said that the Committee on Foreign Relations had considered the subject, and had come to the conclusion that the sum appropriated was sufficient. He had no objection to the amount being increased.

The resolution was then passed.

Mr. SHERMAN, from the Committee on Finance, reported back the bill to provide for the payment of the interest on the bonds of the Pacific Railroad companies, and asked for its present consideration.

Mr. SUMNER said that the Secretary of the Treasury and the Postmaster General had both recommended the passage of the bill, and he hoped it would be passed.
